

Q Does your Dad have any investments, bank accounts, stocks and bonds ?

A He has a bank account in the Western Maryland as far as I was able to ascertain.

Q Do you know the approximate amount of it?

A Approximately $3,000.

Q Any cash funds other than the bank account?

A He had ninety-couple dollars on his person when we took him to the hospital, which I deposited and paid some of his bills.

Q You have a balance of approximately $50, is that right?

A Right.

Q Any other property you know of?

A As far as I know, no. There could be something that I can't find.

Q At the present time is anyone in charge of your Dad's property?

A At the present time I suppose I am, because I am the only one lives up here.

Q No one actually lives in the house?

A No.

Q The house is vacant?

A It is vacant.

Q Has any provision been made for the payment of your Dad's hospital expenses?

A Yes, my brother and I have signed the paper--

Q Agreement? A. Agreement.

Q (The Court) Responsibility sheet?

A Right: responsibility sheet at the Springfield Hospital.

Q In your opinion do you think it would be to the best interests of your father that the Court assume jurisdiction of this estate and appoint someone to take charge of and manage it?

A I think it would.
